

ACH continue to be thought leaders

Article by:
Matthew Rogers
Marketing & Communications
Officer @ ACH Bristol

REME20 Conference
The 20th Annual Ethnic Minority Business
Conference

Thursday 20th October 2016
Fazeley Studios, Digbeth, Birmingham, B5 5SE

Taking place on Thursday 20 October 2016 at Fazeley Studios, the 20th Annual Ethnic Minority Business Conference showcased new developments in research and practice on diversity and enterprise

Osman Ishal, our Regional Manager for the West Midlands, featured on the panel discussion on Looking Ahead: the Future of Minority Enterprise. CREME20 was run by the Centre for Research in Ethnic Minority Enterprise, part of the University of Birmingham.

Speakers:

Waseem Zaffar, Birmingham City Council
Osman Ishal, Ashley Community Housing
Sally Arkley, The Women's Economy
Louise Townsend, Morgan Sindall
Lara Ratnaraja, Cultural Consultant
Chair: Professor Monder Ram OBE, CREME, Birmingham Business School