

Bristol Mayor Visits ACH

This month the Bristol Mayor, George Ferguson, visited our Bristol office to chat to our staff and to gain an insight into what we've been up to these past few months. It was great to show George the different training courses we now have available to tenants and the local community, as well talking about different upcoming events that Ashley Community Housing will be attending.

